1. On 11 December one monoplane painted with three red stars directed the Chinese Communist artillery fire west of Pulantien (121-59, 39-24). The Chinese Communists there have about ten howitzers.
2. On 12 December three monoplanes appeared at high altitudes over Pulantien but they did not strafe or bomb. General TU Yu-ming forbids the Nationalist airforce to operate in that section because it is too near the Soviet line.
